How you are charged for services and adviser remuneration

The cost of providing a financial product or service to you will depend on the nature and complexity of the advice, financial product and/or service provided. Generally, whenever I provide a recommendation for a financial product or service, I will be remunerated through either:

- An initial fee for service
- An ongoing fee for service
- A contribution fee or implementation fee
- Commission payments from product providers where applicable
- A combination of any of the above.

Prior to preparing any advice or providing financial services to you, we will discuss and agree upon all fees that will apply.

My service fees
Hourly rate (or part thereof)	$330 per hour
Advice and/or implementation fee	Up to $20,000
Ongoing retainer (Fixed fee based on service package)	From $4,400

N.B. The above fees are a guide only, all fees will be documented in either an engagement letter or ongoing service agreement, for your consent, before being charged.

How commission and other forms of remuneration/benefits are calculated

Where an insurer pays a commission, this may be up to 66% of your initial premium and then up to 33% of your ongoing premium. For example, if your premium is $1000 your adviser would receive $660 initial and $330 in ongoing commission.

I receive a salary from WIAA Pty Ltd t/a What If Advice + Accounting and may also receive a management fee or distribution of profits from WIAA Pty Ltd t/a What If Advice + Accounting and/or Beryllium Advisers Pty Ltd. The amount of my salary is dependent on a range of factors including my experience, skills and professional standards.

The exact amounts of any fees, commissions, bonuses, or other incentives received by Beryllium Advisers Pty Ltd and me will be disclosed in your SOA or ROA. Fees and commissions are paid to Beryllium Advisers Pty Ltd in the first instance who then pay your adviser/s.

Do I have any referral arrangements, conflicts of interest or related parties that affect your advice?

WIAA Pty Ltd t/a What If Advice + Accounting has referral arrangements in place with a range of specialist businesses as this allows us to refer you to other professionals in areas that I do not practice in.

Should you be referred to us by one of those specialists such as an accountant, mortgage broker or solicitor, that third party may receive a fee for the referral. You will receive more detailed information concerning any referral fee in your SoA or other relevant document. I do not receive referral fees personally from any party.

Neither your Adviser nor the Licensee have any association or relationship with the issuers of financial products or third-party service providers that might reasonably be expected to be capable of influencing them in the provision of financial services to you.

I do not own shares in Beryllium Advisers Pty Ltd.
